

Sustain Maumee Watershed

BACKGROUND: The Great Lakes Smart and Sustainable Cities Cluster was established as a National Institute of Standards and Technologies (NIST) cluster in 2018 by the Council of Great Lakes Region (CGLR), City of Defiance and Artha.zone to address the United Nations' seventeen Sustainability Development Goals.

More at: https://gctc.opencommons.org/The Great Lakes Smart and Sustainable Cities Cluster

With this questionnaire we are building a network of collaborators starting with the following goal.

GOAL: Significantly improve water quality in the Maumee Watershed Region.

By submitting this form you are giving us permission to use your input according to following guidelines:

- 1) your input will be aggregated and publicly shared; specifics will not be ascribed to you, and
- 2) your email will not be made public.

Required

EMAIL ADDRESS* Your email: _____

LAST NAME* Your answer: _____

WHAT ACTION(S) DO YOU THINK WE COULD TAKE TOWARDS THE GOAL?

Your answer:

WHAT HAVE YOU DONE THUS FAR RELATED TO THE GOAL?

Provide a summary, if you have a related report or document, please email it as a pdf attachment to a.z@artha101.com

Your answer:

WHO ELSE DO YOU THINK WE SHOULD CONTACT?

Please list their emails below.

Your answer: